

INDIANA BROCHURE DISTRIBUTION POLICY
A COOPERATIVE PROGRAM OF THE INDIANA DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION
AND THE OFFICE OF TOURISM DEVELOPMENT
Revised 7/28/09

Purpose: To promote Indiana and tourism related businesses to the traveling public in Indiana, through brochure distribution at interstate rest areas, toll roads, welcome centers, and local visitor centers.

Brochures and pamphlets that qualify for distribution:

- Brochures produced in cooperation with the Tourism and Information and Promotion Fund
- Brochures produced by an Indiana regional tourism organization, convention and visitor bureau, and chamber of commerce, (or like entity) which promote the local area
- Brochures for Indiana facilities frequented by the traveling public, such as hotels, restaurants, antique malls, retail malls, wineries, attractions, inns, campgrounds, and bed and breakfasts
- Brochures for Indiana festivals, sporting, ethnic, and cultural events open to the public

Brochures and pamphlets that do not qualify for distribution:

- Brochures for attractions, events, organizations, or destinations located outside of the state of Indiana
- Materials not relevant to the traveling public or to motivating travel and tourism in Indiana
- Materials promoting the sale of products or services
- Multi-state coupon books or other guidebooks that contain less than 25% Indiana content

Approval and distribution policy:

- The approval process grants permission for distribution of individual brochures, not for the distributing organization itself. Organizations wishing to distribute multiple brochures with different content must apply for approval of each piece. You may submit all pieces at once, or apply for approval as each of your brochures becomes available.
- Your approval letter will indicate the date through which distribution of your brochure is approved. After the expiration date, you must re-apply for approval.
- You will be notified by individual distribution centers when additional pieces are needed via email. You may contact any distribution center to check on your inventory.
- If you are re-supplying brochures to any distribution center after your initial shipment, follow the procedures outlined in item #3, below. A copy of your original approval letter from the Office of Tourism must accompany both your initial shipment and any subsequent shipments.
- Dated materials must be current or shipment will be discarded.
- Excess materials may be discarded.

Procedures for approval and distribution:

- 1) A sample brochure must be sent to the Tourism Office for review. Send your request to:
Anicia Richardson
Office of Tourism
